When is the attack on biogen?

No plans on biogen, but if you've seen evidence of fraud, tweet or pubpeer it by all means. If you'd like another totally sketchy company to invest in $Avxl is basically a scam, imo

Jesse brodkin @jesse_brodkin · Jul 16, 2022

Does $Avxl have an IND for Anavex2-73 to look at Alzheimer's? In 2018 Stat reports they are a little shy on the subject. 4 years later, no PR, no US sites 🤷‍♂️ statnews.com/2018/07/09/ana... cc @statnews

Over 100,000 doses of Simufilam administered with zero safety events. Aduhelm is already approved by the FDA with lower effectiveness and safety profile. FDA is allowing phase three to continue because they have seen full data and are not concerned. FDA will approve this drug

Examining COIs is fair game, though here the interlock and conflict are pretty profound. Journal is clubby, and conflicted regarding $SAVA certainly. Indifference to bias likely explains why JNeuro has such a low impact factor. Attend a ballgame, get a pub!

Well at the risk of offending even friends, when one considers the research in neuroscience, SFN was always populated by grad students and faculty, the lowest tier. Important research goes to ACNP, ANA, AAN, and Biological Psych. $SAVA had to go where it could.
